

In-person FREE seminar – ESG issues and its impact on international arbitration: Climate change or change of climate?

Tuesday, 6 February 2024 | 10:00 – 12:00pm | Paris

Event

Join the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Ciarb) European Branch/French Chapter for an in-person interactive debate, which will also include a Q&A session. The seminar will last around 1.5 hours and is FREE of charge.

Venue

The Paris office of Bird & Bird (2, rue de la Chaussée d'Antin, 75009).

Registration

The number of places is limited. To register your interest and attendance, please send an email to Alexandre Malan at a.malan@bmavocats.com.

Moderators

Mr. Jalal El Ahdab

(Partner, Bird & Bird, CIArb
European Branch Vice-Pdt)

Alexandre Malan

(Partner, Belot Malan & Associés, Ciarb French Chapter Chair)

Topics and Speakers

Arbitrating Climate Change Disputes

Ms. Kirsten Odynski

(Partner, White & Case LLP)

Impact of the EU due diligence legislation on international arbitration

Dr. Yulia Levashova, MCIArb

(Associate Professor, Nyenrode University)

ESG & Force Majeure

Dr. Pascale Accaoui Lorfing

(Affiliate Professor - ESCP Business School/
Associate Researcher, CREDIMI)

Procedural challenges for counsel and arbitrators facing ESG clauses and green arbitrations

Prof. Patrick Thieffry

(Independent Arbitrator)

Supporting Organisations

Bird & Bird

WHITE & CASE

BÉLOT MALAN & ASSOCIÉS

www.ciarb.org

